

The Macedonian Ministry of Education has replaced social dialogue with threats and oppression

On Monday 26 January 2015, ETUCE European Director Martin Rømer will travel to the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia to help seeking for a solution in the current severe labour conflict in the education sector. For many months, the social dialogue about several pending and urgent labour issues has been extremely difficult. >>>

Trade unionists gathered in Vienna to challenge the liberalisation of public services in TTIP and beyond

On 15 and 16 January 2015 ETUCE together with EPSU, AK and ÖGB are organizing a training seminar on how to challenge the liberalisation of public services in TTIP, CETA and TISA. The event is taking place in the premises of ÖGB in Vienna and has gathered 100 trade union representatives from 25 different countries in order to discuss the pitfalls of and common responsive strategies to the free trade agreements that the EU is currently in the process of negotiating. >>>

ETUCE facilitates historic agreement between all Cypriot Teacher Unions

On 10th January 2015, all 6 Teacher Unions in Cyprus representing the Greek Cypriot and Turkish Cypriot Communities signed a historic agreement about cooperation. The agreement comes after several attempts have been made during the last 14 years. >>>

New Eurydice Report: New approaches to the education evaluation in Europe

The new Eurydice report examines the two major types of school evaluation: external evaluation, conducted by evaluators who are not directly involved in school activities, and internal evaluation, where most evaluators are members of the examined school's staff. >>>

More news is available on our website: csee-etuce.org