

NEW: ETUCE Application for mobile devices

The ETUCE Secretariat has developed a mobile application to help you access information about ETUCE's work easily from your mobile devices! You can now install this app whether from Google Play (Androids) or from the Apple App Store (IPhones) to read the latest news, find out about policy issues, and download the latest documents from wherever you are. >>>

ETUCE issues A Call for Solidarity with the Greek Teacher Unions

In these times of grim uncertainty about the future of Greece and its people, ETUCE expresses its full solidarity with its member organisations, OLME and DOE, and their members. Thousands of teachers and students have been hit hard by the severe impact of the drastic cuts in the public sector and the entire education system. >>>

The European Parliament's TTIP recommendations contain both progress and setbacks

ETUCE welcomes the progress achieved for the protection of public services in TTIP as the language of the INTA report remained unchanged, which calls for the exclusion of all current and future public services. >>>
